"007, Towanda, Camp Towanda"

©2006 Gotcamp?

It Is Really All Of Us

Jake Wieseneck, Junior Boy 2007, Homework assignment

Assignment: Describe a Person who has been a significant influence in your life. Explain how you are different from having known him/her.

"It never rains and there are no hills" is not just one of Camp Towanda's many mottos. This saying also reflects the positive attitude of Mitch Reiter, the camp's owner and director. In my two summers at Camp Towanda, a sleep-away camp in Honesdale, Pennsylvania, Mitch has made a significant impact on my life.

Right from my first time meeting with him, at a barbecue for new campers, he convinced me that camp was fun and that I should not be scared about leaving home. His calm and caring personality helped me relax and get excited about the next summer. Also, his positive attitude and sense of humor convinced me that Towanda was the right camp for me!

When I left for camp it was the first time I was going to be separated from my family for more than one night. I was excited, but I was also nervous. From the time I arrived in Honesdale, Mitch, Stephanie, his wife, and the counselors all helped me to feel comfortable even walking up the big hills!

Mitch also helped me overcome one of my biggest fears in the very first week of camp. Before my summer at Towanda, I was scared of most dogs. On the first day, I was introduced to the Reiter's two dogs, Taxi, who is old and calm and Casper, who was still a puppy and was very wild. I was so scared of Casper that one of my counselors gave me a piggy back ride to the opening evening activity so I could avoid running into Casper. When Mitch heard I was scared of Casper, he helped me by showing me how to play with him and convinced me that the dog was not dangerous. Even when I was anxious, he calmed me down and gave me confidence not to be afraid. In the next few weeks, I got over my fear and I now love Casper like he was my own dog!

One of the Mitch's best qualities is that he is always using humor to make the campers happy and create a great environment at Towanda. During my first year, I figured out that Mitch even teaches the counselors to use humor to help campers with home sickness. Mitch always knows what kids like to do and he treats all the campers like they are his own children. This is important because he tries to be fair to everyone and give every child a chance to make an impact and feel important and loved. He went out of his way to make me feel special and that really made a difference in my camp experience and influenced my life. I realize that I should always treat everyone fairly and that a positive attitude and humor can help you when you are afraid or unhappy.

Because of the fun environment Mitch creates at camp, and my desire to get into the five year club, I went back to Towanda for my second summer. That first week of camp was full of bingo, board games and THIRTEEN INCHES OF RAIN! Mitch never changed our motto and planned some great activities for the kids including bumper cars, indoor basketball and football in the rain. Even though it rained for seven days straight, Mitch used a lot of jokes and his positive personality to make sure camp was fun for all the campers and the counselors. After a wet start, it turned out that the summer was even better than my first year!

Mitch also teaches campers that everybody can give back to the community. During the summer, everyone at Towanda participates in a Swimathon for Morry's Camp, which is a summer camp for underprivileged children. It is named after a man, Morry Stein, who dedicated his life to offering camping to children who could not afford to pay for camp. Morry was my father's camp director, which makes the Swimathon special for me. By swimming forty laps this year, I raised $80 for this charity. I felt great about my accomplishment. Even though we spend a lot of time having fun at camp, Mitch's influence teaches us that we can also help other people at the same time!

Crazy Towanda Fact

What are our official camp colors???

Amazingly, we seem to be quite the colorful camp... But officially, due to Olympics, we would really say "red and blue".

Logo colors: yellow-blue-green-with a hint of black

Team colors: red and blue

Retro colors: brown & gold

Logo wear: Oddly enough, although Mitch seems to have a shirt with the logo in every hue, his most popular color combo is green and khaki.

Hope this helps!!

REUNION RECAP

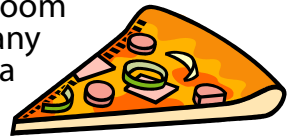

The New New Jersey Reunion was excellent. The new location, Space Odyssey proved to be a great improvement. We had our own private space, enough room, plenty of parking, ease of food and games and an overall great flow for the people. Those of you who attended for the first time, you have to realize how whacky our days at SportsWorld were! I think we have found a new home... and it was great to see everyone.

Those of you who were unable to attend, you should have received your bunk picture and DVD of Friday Nite Flix in the mail. Any staff that would like a copy of FNF, please send Dusty an email at desk@camptowanda.com. Staff will be able to download their bunk pictures from the Media Room in December.

The day started out with hugs and handshakes, followed by some game time and the Best Of Friday Night Flix Highlights, which ended in a mysterious 2007 snowstorm (was that a hint, a fakeout, a gag or was it just totally lost in the frenzy of the day?); Regardless, after the video, it was lunchtime and gamecards....the overnight bag room was full...the lost & found cage was ignored for the most part and many people left with a great feeling, good smiles and plenty of Camp Towanda Post-it pads, pencils, pens, bumper stickers, a 2007 calendar, a bunk picture and of course, the DVD highlights.

The following signed in legibly at the reunion:

Advice From The Past

Dear Mitch and Stephanie,

I recently reconnected via email with an old bunkmate from 1994.

I had lost touch with her after I left camp senior summer, and I thought it was because she had sided with two other girls who I thought didn't want me to return to camp for Dorm summer. As you know, I didn't come back for my Dorm year.

Anyway, it's really stupid--but it was something that kinda "haunted" me for a long time. Amazingly one of my biggest regrets is NOT going back to camp for Dorm summer. I know NOW that I would have worked it out with all my friends if I did just go back... after all, we were just growing up!

It seems so strange to still even talk about it after all these years as something I regret. But if you ever have a camper who tells you they don't want to come back to camp because of a spat with their friends--you just send them my way. I'll set them straight!!

So I am happy to say I have reconnected with my friend and feel really good about it all. I really thought that she was part of what I thought was the "treatment" I was getting from my other friends. But she was really my friend all along.

Phew!! How's that for gossip!! I love camp... it really is a special place and time.

Love, Libby Cobb

(should have been Dorm 1995)!

Cover Story Continued;

Since first meeting Mitch, I feel I have grown up a lot. I am more independent and I am willing to try new experiences on my own. I am able to spend seven weeks away from my family and I am less afraid of dogs and other animals. Mitch helped to bring me into the Towanda family and now I understand that all people should be treated fairly and that people can be different and still be a part of a group or community. When I meet someone who is different, I accept their differences and treat them the same as everyone else.

Finally, Mitch has taught me that being funny and positive is so important to making the lives of all the people you speak to a little bit better. I now believe that humor conquers everything and I am certain that wherever Mitch Reiter is "it never rains and there are no hills"!

Note From Mitch: Okay first, because of Weeze's essay, The Junior Boys will get a special late night pizza party! Seriously, Stephanie and I are constantly reminded by our wonderful campers and staff that Towanda is an unique and special place that is very rewarding for all of us. We are proud to have the opportunity to help make a positive difference. Thanks, Weeze!

Coming Soon:

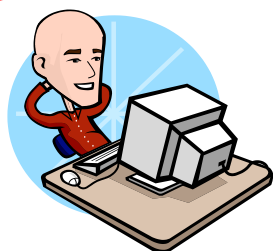

- The Cloz Catalog packing list and much more as we get closer to camp!!
- Club & Dorm 2007!

LET'S GET TOGETHER!!! BOCA BEACH PARTY!

Tuesday December. 26, 2006
11:30 AM to 3:00 P.M.

This is our 2nd year at: South Beach Park, Boca
Raton, Florida.

(This is not in South Beach, it is in Boca!)

Check out the live web cam:

<http://evsboca.netfirms.com/default.htm>

Everyone's welcome to join the fun: campers (old & new), staff, parents, alumni, friends, prospective campers and their families. If you're heading south for the holidays, we'd love to see you!! Bring lunch, lotion, camera & towel! Rain or Shine we will be there.

DIRECTIONS: SOUTH BEACH PARK is located at the intersection of A-1-A and Palmetto Park Road. (This is just a mile or so south of Spanish River Park, our old reunion spot). The park entrance is at the end of East Palmetto Park Road which dead ends into A-1-A. This is the drop off area, "South Beach Pavilion".

PARKING: In case the main lot is filled, there is additional parking just to the north of the main entrance. To get to the additional parking area, make a left (north) on A-1-A and after a few hundred yards, take the first right into the "South Beach Park Entrance". Follow our hot pink arrows. Make a right just after the guard shed and travel as far as you can. This will bring you right back to the drop off area and the walk in entrance.

WHERE WE ARE ON THE BEACH: Walk down pavilion steps (just to the left of the green roof pavilion), we will be just to the left on the beach, just passed the pavilion overhang.

LUNCH: Please bring a complete picnic lunch (there is a good Italian deli and pizza place across the street).

CONTACT: If there is a problem on Reunion Day, contact Mitch on his cell, 914-645-8267

Be prepared for the sun, fun, volleyball and hanging on the beach with new and old friends!
