Growth, Leadership, Fun

Brian Klasner has grown up at Camp Towanda, starting in the 20th century. Klas brings his infectious style of leadership with humor and unconditional care to camp. This is his sermon from last summer.

Klas is returning for his 12th summer; he makes a big difference here!

Half a score and 2 years ago when the sun was at its highest point I walked off the metal stallion that took me to this land for the first time.

Sorry, that comment was the history teacher in me. I would like to open this sermon the way I open my classroom everyday: Good evening my young historians. How are we all doing today? (Pause for laughter.)

Instead of taking this time and telling you a story about my camp experience, I want to tell everyone here, whether they realize it or not, how much of an impact Camp Towanda is having on your life. If it's your first year or eighteenth year, camp is a place that you will never be able to explain to anybody outside of this little world of ours.

Believe me I am used to the confused faces when I try to explain how hilarious Mr. Towanda is or the rules of Ghost.

Anywhoo....why digress? I can honestly say I am who I am today because of this place. I grew up here. Camp took an incredibly immature kid and helped transform him into a slightly less immature adult, which is, of course, acceptable!

It is here at Camp Towanda where we never have to grow up, but somehow we do. I am a teacher now, who saw that one coming!

At camp I have had the pleasure of being the counselor for the Senior boys, the National boys, and now the Inter boys. I can say with a smile that each group has had its own different quirks and many similarities.

Camp is where Rapchik convinced you baby sharks can fly (they can't), I told Jake Cohen that there are too many Jakes in the group so he will be referred to as Thumper for the rest of his life, and we convinced Kripke that I am a 31 year old who has been married three times and I have six kids! But that is what makes camp great.

Along with my many phenomenal campers, I have the pleasure to look out at this crowd and be very proud of a number of counselors that I can proudly call my friends.

Whether you are a counselor or camper you can take out of camp what you want to. It is not the activities, the trips, or what you do on your days off that makes this place special, it is the people. Camp Towanda brings together the greatest group of people I have ever met. In another 12 years that is what I will remember about camp: the people. I hope all of you do as well. Although the same state, not quite The Gettysburg Address!

an awesome one! Mitch & Stephanie love having the incoming Seniors at camp in the winter at The Mansion! Despite below zero temperatures for the girls' weekend and balmy upper teens for the boys; bonding, sledding on the groomed grassy knoll, frozen Sunset Lake activities (snowmobile, s'mores, football & ice fishing), basketball in the Field House and mattress, moving all made for an absolutely wonderful weekend.

And not to forget that Mitch's spaghetti dinner was only outdone by his famous hibachi breakfast eggs!
Thanks to the Dads who helped and Hannah Lyons & Jared Reiter who came from college to visit their campers.

BOGA BEACH PARTY

FLORIDA REUNION

Always a fun excuse to gather campers, parents, staff, alumni and new families; the Florida Beach Reunion in December was terrific. Despite very chilly temperatures, we did luck out with a sunny day. Even though it was one of the rare occasions Mitch was wearing long pants and a sweatshirt, there was a great crowd of over 200 people. Plenty of food, drinks and sunscreen! It was great seeing everyone. It didn't stop there; Mitch & Stephanie ran into Towanda-ers at the movies, restaurants and the Heat vs Knicks game all week long!

SENIOR BASEBALL

O a Senior especially, baseball period has a double significance. It means not only the regular league game and practice, but also the qualifying for the camp team. Every senior, therefore, is on his toes during the baseball periods, so that instruction and practice are run off in big league style. This spirit resulted in keenly contested games in the Senior League and a rather strong camp team, which gave a good account of itself. The group was fortunate in being able to split up into two very evenly matched teams with the Malofbrothers pitching against each other. Batting and fielding averages were kept and much of the free time at Senior Row was spent in "warming up"

There goes the whistle for activities. Senior baseball! All out! Marty Eile is half way to the field before the O. D. has finished his announcement. "Come on, boys, bring the bats, balls and gloves for today; we have a league game." In no time at all Greg Malofsky has his team on the field. Irving Goldberger already has his mask and body protector on and is calling for the ball. Dave Noble is guarding the initial sack, while Bernie Levine will give him able assistance at second. Mickey Raker is hoping the first ball will be hit to him at

Batter, up!" calls the umpire and the game is on. The pitcher winds up; here comes the ball.

"Not my style," says
Marty Goldstein, as he takes a firmer grip on his bat, but the umpire pulls a Casey on him and calls it a strike. The next pitch he drives to Katz in left-field for an easy out. Who is this advancing to the plate? None other than Ginsberg, the redoubtable Philadelphian who proves an easy victim to the pitcher's curves. Malofsky has everything on the ball today for Abe, next up, also goes out on strikes. And so the game progresses, with serious and comic incidents in which every camper

THE PEPPERS TRIUMPH

MONG the Intermediates there was almost as much interest as among the Seniors. The Uppers had a scrappy league fight and they too had the incentive of making the Junior Camp Team. Jerry Myerson and Alex Pearlman were outstanding in their respective positions. Charlie Abrams and Merwin Bayer vied with each other at snatching flies in the outfield. Sandy Katz had his dazzling curves under such good control that even such redoubtable batters as Barclay Bloomgarden, Jules Lipsky and Jack Werbelovsky found it hard to con-nect for many hits. On the bases, Mortimer Herskovits and Kenneth Rosenheck were exhibiting fine style at the season's close. Adolph Klein and Arthur Roggen made de-

To Wonder About Towanda

Why do kids and counselors love being part of the camp family and living at Camp Towanda? Why is it so hard to describe to others what makes it special?

At home, everyone moves so fast; racing, hurrying, planning, squeezing stuff in, trying to catch up, and wondering what others are doing.

At Camp Towanda, we move at our own pace. Everyone is included and everyone is happy. All we do is "to wander" around playing, learning and growing while experiencing lots of excitement, laughter and friendships.

Life at Camp Towarda is truly like no other place. It is the way life used to be in the old days, kind of like the way life should be now. We are all here, we are all one, and we are all together.

We share, care, fair to those near, breathing our air. You and Camp Towanda, what a pair!

Getting ready for camp includes helping new campers and their parents feel comfortable, and extensive staff training and preparation. 10-4-2 is what we do! We live TEN months FOR TWO! Those lucky enough to have this great privilege and experience, reap the benefits their entire life. Towarda is Camp, the rest is just life! Get ready, get psyched, the summer of 2011 is getting closer!

GROUP SCOOP REVIEW

A very special thanks to CLUB & DORM 2011 who chaperoned the New Camper Group Scoop

Orientation session for many of our new campers.

OME NEW CAMPERS!

We want to Welcome the following new campers (as of press time) as the newest members of our camp family since our last issue. It won't be long until you are feeling comfortable and at home at camp. We have taken the opportunity to give you a temporary nickname as we imagine a new one will develop once we are altogether at camp! Welcome All to the Summer of 2011!:

Jeremy "Jarm" Abramowitz (brother of Addison & Bailey), Morgan "EmCee" Cohen, Jakob "Coop" Cooperstein, Thomas 'Top Cat' Croft (son of O&A Ryan & the Office Mala-ameter!), Ryan "1st" First, Jonny "The Hammer" Hamwee (brother of Livers Hamwee), Steve "Hoss" Hassett, Riley "Smoothy" Kurzer (sister of Cassidy), Zoe "Zo-Lo" Lanel (sister of Adam & Griffin), Emma "E-L-P" Leipsner (dad Alan is alum), Simon "Sez" Muller, Lee "L-ARE-S" Rosenswell, Ava "Ator" & Sammy "Schneids" Schneider, Austin "A-Tuck" & Matthew "M-Tuck" Tucker

NEW FOR 2011

- No more long walks back to the bunks with the new O&A bathrooms near the Tombstone campfire area. And, speaking of clean toilets, The Dorm Girls can look forward to an all new sanitized, remodeled, hygienically wonderful, brand spanking new bathroom. Don't worry, we saved the old stall doors!
- You have heard of Triple-1-Zero for the Senior Boys; now the girls on Senior Row have the "Sporch" connecting Outback and Next" (insert rim shot!). The Senior porch name was coined by Alana Pines winning out over other names such as The NextBack, The Same Bunk, Double-1-Not Zero or The Bridge Extension!
- The Rec Hall transforms a bit with the new REC DECK; this is a huge covered porch facing The Apple Tree and Stephanie's Horse.
 - Arts & Crafts has been remodeled and is much more spacious!
 - The outdoor fitness center begins (this will be a multi-year project) as well as more fitness and Zumba classes!
 - From the Media Department: Friday Nite Flix expands with "morning news reports" presented by groups. And any day now the iPhone App should be ready!
- Plus a lot of other cool things such as more ping-pong tables, an additional new ski boat and a few new additions to the games of The Canteen.

We'll update you more as we get closer to camp!

VisionWalk

Date: Saturday, May 21, 2011 Place: Central Park, NYC

Central Park Bandshell at W 72nd St

Registration: 8:00 AM

Towanda Team Meeting: 8:30 AM

Walk Start: 9:00 AM

Message from this year's VWalk Leaders, Jennie Russnow and David Ostern:

As everyone knows, one of the charitable organizations that Camp Towanda supports is the Foundation Fighting Blindness. For the past 5 years, campers, staff, and family members have supported FFB by attending the annual VisionWalk. This year, the VisionWalk will be held on Saturday morning, May 21st in Central Park. Individuals can sponsor Team Towanda members by logging on to our VisionWalk website:

http://www.fightblindness.org/site/TR?team_id=58100&fr_id=4051&pg=team or by sending donations to the camp winter office. In years past, Camp Towanda has had one of the largest teams in attendance, and we want to continue that tradition this year. This is a great opportunity to see your camp friends and support a great cause; that is working hard to find cures for blindness.

In addition to the above website and for further information concerning ways to donate, ways to get involved, or get Team Towanda t-shirts ($25), please contact desk@camptowanda.com and/or RSVP on Facebook, search "NYC VisionWalk".
