GET ME TO CAMP! SPF 85

It is springtime and you can feel that camp is just around the corner! More mail, email and phone calls from the camp office! Duffle bag contents sprawled out in dining rooms. Sunscreen tubes filled. Logo fever!

At camp in Honesdale, staff have begun to arrive to help spruce up and prep camp for the arrival of the campers! The new Infirmary, the new bunk roofs, the ga-ga padding, resurfaced tennis courts, the live web cam and so much more will be ready for you!!

As I write this article, I myself am getting ready to move to camp; in fact by the time you read this I will be at camp.....look for flyby waves on the live white rock cam!

Are you ready? Are you psyched? Are you finished with your homework? Rest up, because when you arrive the plan is to keep you active, happy, safe and involved while trying new things, meeting new friends and just loving your summer home! Our staff is looking mighty nice (see related article in this issue)!!

Anything to do this summer? Let's see: Staff Show, Opening Campfire, Unique Entertainment, Towanda Open, Magician Night, Talent Show, Five Year Club to the NEW SCRANTON YANKEES, Banana Splits, Krispy Kreme's, The first Play, The Dorm, Club, LIT Canoe Trips, Towanda Deal or No Deal, Horseracing, Fireworks, Guinness Record, Water Carnival, Campapalooza, Scavenger Hunt, and Brad The Hypnotist !!!
This is just the first 10 days' special events

Don't forget we will also be having daily activities, team practices, inter-camp games, free play, breakfast with The Beatles, American Pie, overnights, Nature with Nathaniel, The T-slide, the very best in classic rock, Sunday night BBQs, show rehearsals, sing practice, Wayne County Camp Association Tournaments, Towanda Tournaments, Master Tennis, The Towanda Times, WCTR-1600 AM, Culinary Classes and Friday Nite Flix!

As the summer progresses, you can expect Dippin Dots, Trip Days (no doubt that we are very excited about the 5 Year Club trip to the Scranton Yankees and the Lower Camp Trip to the Binghamton Mets), Girls Sing, maybe no rainy day mess hall dance parties, Electionality, DJ Todd, the return of Square Dancing, Casino Night, Backwards Day (Yad Sdrawkcab), Dutch Auction, Airbands, possibly Olympics (Oh, I forget, Taxi's last wish was "No more Olympics"... I'm just kidding, Taxi loved Olympic line-up and those silent dinners).

The clock is ticking, the 85th summer of Camp Towanda is getting closer. Before you know it, we will all be together as one giant family...at line up on Saturday Night June 23rd!

So my Towanda-ers, get ready, get psyched, get packing and just get to CAMP TOWANDA 2007, whence we will BOND in 007 because Camp will be HEAVEN in 2007 and all that ! Hey, Did I say "whence"? ...ahhhh, and so much, much more.....see you soon..... and don't forget your sunscreen!!!

See you here!

Mitch

GOOD EXCUSE FOR ANOTHER REUNION

Our LITs last year became more involved in several charitable organizations. As many of you know, we sponsor the Swim-A-Thon For Morry's Camp which has raised several thousands of dollars each year to help send under privileged children to camp. We are also involved with SCOPE, which helps promote inner-city kids to do well in school and attend the summer camp experience.

Last October, our LITs participated in the Foundation Fighting Blindness' (FFB) VisionWalk in Central Park. Their team contributed a portion of the over $400,000.00 raised at the event. It was a great fun day for the many that attended. Music, food and free t-shirts in Central Park! The suggestion grew from that day to turn this into another reunion event for campers, staff and their parents who can attend. Mark your calendars; The Date is Sunday October 7 at 9AM in Central Park in NYC. We'll send more information at a later date. You can also check it out at:
www.fightblindness.org/site/TR?pg=team&fr\_id=1430&team\_id=8760

We look forward to another great year as our LITs get involved!

Carol Wildenberg from Hawaii was at camp from age 5 until her college years started in 1967....Cory Randell (05-07) has been travelling New Zealand & Australia but will make it back in time for camp... David Goldblum suggests: Since " camp's heaven " was already used as a slogan in 1997, you could use:Let's get em in '07 or the sun's setting in '07 as possible replacements. Just a thought!!!!...The Reiter's hosted an ISRAELI REUNION IN TEL AVIV IN EARLY APRIL (a big thanks to Gil IZZY Doron for helping organizing it); we had Staff from a 14 year span from Lital Goldberg right up to Rony Shaked (2007) and including: Hagit Raz, Yael Ben-Israel, Kobe Shwartz, Hilla Antar, Ido Aylon, Yarra Katan, Omri Alpron, Roy Delgani, & Erez Fadel---see the picture! ...GG Erica Stott (99)is married and hopes to return in the future, still hears from her boys...Matthew Reilkoff from Saskatoon, SK, Canada sends his regards...Jill Kramer (1979- 1983)& Ian Charie(80-82)got married in 94 and now live in Boston would love to hear from their camp friends...Larry Schwartz (Club 1982) says hi...JAKE WIESENECK had a live interview may 9 on channel 9 in nyc regarding his scholastic magazine reporter duties...Léon van den Thillart from The Netherlands shouts out to his old boys, Andy Wong and the boys of Club 2002 and says he stil gets hungry when he hears AMERICAN PIE... Emily Niesenbaum heard from UPenn alum Matt Levy...Michael Thompson (06-07) has become Florida's youngest ever Head Wrestling Coach at his old high school...The Fabrizio's hosted a bbq in March at their Australian home, including the FAB (Lee Evans), Mrs. Fab (Jodi Hodge), Bob, Phyllis & Andy Miller, Kraz, Kunkel, Gerri O, Kathy Backholer, & Brad Nyquist. (sorry photo not up to camp standards!). So much more great news from alumni and active Towanda-ers; we'll have a larger column in the Fall After the summer...Don't forget that the summer issues of The Towanda Times are available online!

ON THE BENCH WITH CAMPMATES ALUMNI HUMOR ALERT

Please note that only some of this article is accurate!

New York, November 21, 2006 <UPI> Court officials say it seems unprecedented, and a search of records dating back nearly 80 years shows that no such situation has ever arisen. Yet, it has now.

In what surely must be a first, the judge's bench of Part B of the Manhattan Criminal Court was occupied today by not one, but by two judges who had both at one time in their lives been Olympic generals at Camp Towanda, a small, bucolic, and reasonably priced, summer camp nestled in the hills of northeast Pennsylvania.

At 10 am this morning, Judge Neil E. Ross (who is married to camp alum, Wendy Turrett and parents of first year and 2nd generation x2 camper, Samantha), who has been on the bench since 1998 (and who first found practice as a judge while serving as a "judgie" at said Camp Towanda Olympics over 25 years ago), was joined on the bench by his newest colleague, and long time friend, Judge Robert Mandelbaum. The two, both of whom attended Camp Towanda in the 1970's and 80's (and Robert into the 90's), exchanged a warm handshake as Mandelbaum presided for the first cases of his judicial career under the watchful eye of Ross, who first met Mandelbaum more than 30 years earlier, and who at one time had actually been Mandelbaum's camp counselor. For his part, Mandelbaum quickly assumed control of one of the nation's busiest courtrooms, and smoothly and with great prowess, worked through a calendar of well over 100 cases.

Following Mandelbaum's maiden appearance, court onlookers were heard to express a great deal of excitement at his obvious prowess. "I've seen them come and I've seen them go," said one veteran clerk, "and rarely does a judge make as smooth and accomplished a first appearance on the bench as Judge Mandlebaum did today." "I remember he was my office mate many years ago," said defense attorney Ernie "Woof" Munich, "and wow, is it ever a pleasure to see him on the bench. Surely he's going to take the judicial world by storm."

Judge Ross, too, was obviously thrilled, and proud, to have the chance to hand the reins to his new colleague. Ross could be seen introducing Mandelbaum to the court staff, all of whom were delighted to meet the new (and young) judge. Said Ross afterwards: "To have Judge Mandelbaum begin his judicial career in this courtroom makes this not only a proud day for his family, but also for the entire populace of the State of New York, as well as for all of us who daily feel the wonderful memories of our time at Camp Towanda running through our veins."

Judge Mandelbaum, who would not comment for this article, will remain assigned to the Manhattan Criminal Court for the foreseeable future. It should be noted that Judge Mandelbaum went on to preside over the "Naomi Campbell hurling a phone at her maid" case. Not since modern day Mansion Mary was AWOL (sleeping in the Infirmary) has there been such sensationalism!

Celebrating Taxi

The Camp Towanda Family was saddened to learn of the passing of Taxi, the camp dog, earlier this year. He touched many lives. Kids who were afraid of dogs, kids who didn't have a dog at home and those that just liked to pet him. We received an overwhelming combination of over 200 emails, condolence cards, donations and gifts in Taxi's memory. We want to thank all of you who took the time to write a Taxi anecdote or have a quiet moment reflecting on Taxi. It was very comforting, as we all felt the rift in the Camp Towanda world. Certainly, camp won't be the same!

Taxi's memory continues on the home page (you can wag his tag) and we have heard that there is a Taxi website!

The following is an article that was being prepared by Brandon Reiter for this issue prior to Taxi's passing.

TAXI

In his memory....

He loves being at camp...The camp dog, Taxi, completed his Bark-Mitzvah year at camp last summer and is gearing up for his 14th summer at camp. He just turned 13 in January, That's 91 in Rabbit Years! (Camp Joke).

In this "ruff" interview, Taxi told The Towanda Times some of his great camp memories:

"..Remember the time I did the Taxi Cam for Friday Nite Flix and you only saw ankles?, or when I used to walk around with about 12 pair of sox in my mouth, or that time I ate a whole pizza, including the box..... or I was sleeping on my back under the UPS truck (Okay, I do that a lot).....or I had a 5 lb Hershey bar that some camper left by the bus at the end of trip day and dissed that myth that dogs can't eat chocolate.....or that time (actually several) I smelled really bad after that black and white thing tried to tell me a secret, I used to love chasing the goats, Rabbi and Fido (and Cordon Bleu and Nanny before them), Ahh, I remember discovering that great smorgasbord at the dump (I know, I gained 20 pounds that summer)....I am a bit disappointed that I have never been on a 5 Year Club Trip (even though by my count I was a member when I was 9 in human months and there was a Taxi "Venzie" T-shirt in 1998.); I always enjoy waterskiing and when I get to do a cameo in a Talent Show!..."

Really, we have a bone to pick with him!

Although he has always been quite mellow and slow (except for the times Dara Reid and Samantha Shelly took his lunch), if he moved any slower, one could think he was stuffed! That speed, now coupled with limited eyesight, weakened muscles, and a light appetite (must be all those years of camp food) doesn't stop Taxi from still loving and looking forward to all the campers patting his belly as they walk by.

Casper, his "knuckle-head" brother (and heir apparent to the buried trove of rawhide all around camp) keeps a protective eye on the old man (as well as any food droppings). The two K-9's chaperoned the winter senior sleepovers and love a good game of GHOST.

At this years' Senior Sleepover

Article Update: Since Taxi's passing, Casper has risen to his role and is successfully preparing to be an integral part of camp this summer (albeit, perhaps with his own stash of ghost and volleyballs and crazy creek chairs to chew)! Believe it or not, Casper is a bit mellower now that his puppy status is becoming "old news". Of course, "bit" is a relative term!

The plans for a "Taxi Stand" memorial are in the works; featuring a Taxi sculpture by Stephanie and a mosaic to be created by Leigh Merinoff and her Fine Art campers.

Please note that all campers will have to now clean up after themselves at the campfire, as Taxi was the one who took care of all the dropped s'mores!
