SEEMS LIKE YESTERDAY

Each Friday evening, an older camper or counselor presents a sermon to share their thoughts of life at Camp Towanda. This past summer, Chandler Bolog, a 2nd generation camper and Camper Captain, reflected on her experience.

Good evening and Shabbat Shalom. Following in my dad's path by attending Towanda, camp has always been a significant part of my life. My dad was so young when he started camp, that he wasn't even able to read or write a letter. He envisioned those same plans for me. However, there was one minor obstacle. I had never been able to make it through a sleepover. I would get so upset, that I needed to go home.

My transition from scared and shy to the fun-loving camper I am today, was smooth thanks to the support from my summer parents, Mitch and Stephanie. They provided me with the love and opportunities, which made me realize overcoming my fear of being away from home was a challenge I was capable of taking. Mitch and Stephanie always make me feel comfortable, at home, and in addition they are my camp role models. They encouraged me to make new friends and be myself around them.

My dad always shares his stories about how he is still close with his camp friends from 30 years ago, but each day I spend at camp makes these stories more meaningful to me. Bob and Spiz were my dad's counselors; they speak on a regular basis year round and are close friends. His friendships have inspired me to stay in touch with my 28 group mates, best friends, and sisters. These girls have impacted my life in so many ways. From the perspective of a girl who has grown up with 2 brothers, it is a privilege to have 28 sisters who will always be there for me. For the youngest kids sitting in the front row, it is important to keep in mind that these relationships you make now will grow and live on forever. We should all remember that each day we have at camp is one day less than we will ever have. Cherish the memories, the bonds, the friends, the opportunities, and the experiences. Don't waste any time you have at camp, because in reality: these are the days, hours, minutes, and seconds that we look forward to each year.

I've known Towanda through stories, as a place where lifelong friends and bonds are established, and where there are no hills and it never rains (funny one!), but most importantly... as my home. The friends I have made and the experiences I've had continue to shape me, and for that I am truly grateful.

To the Dorm of 2010: there's nothing I wouldn't give to be able to relive these past seven summers with you. And remember: "Anywhere I'll be these memories remain with me" (Dorm Alma Mater 2010).

Thank you,

Chandler

What We Hear From The Mansion Porch!!!

Mandy Riesterer is the athletic trainer for Detroit's Wayne State University Women's Ice Hockey team... Matt Martin (a happy dad) is living in Houston while Mom Nurse Debbie Martin is working cardiac care in Texas... Vito Zuccarelli is travelling through Italy... Jake 'SR' Levy is an assistant ski instructor at Mount Snow... Thomas Rode is expecting to be a dad come June... Jackie Bolno hopes to return to camp in 2013 while working toward her doctorate... Robert Edwards & Angel Vilchez were in Barcelona visiting staff and future campers... Alexa Birnbaum is working with the charter schools of NYC... Ellen Lyne is buying a house and president of the local Netball Club and hopes to be back in 2012... Dave King, now married to Childs Koon (see picture), is working on counselor recruiting for CCUSA in the UK... Lame Duck Camp President Allie Chaikin is sporting some very presidential sneakers (see picture)... Due to some whacky, unexplainable, technical, snafu, Erica Levy's birthday was omitted for the 2nd year in a row; let it be known for now and the next few years, her birthday is November 26th!... Kristin Yates had a baby girl!... Devon Brodsky runs into Wiggles Bromberg at Vanderbilt (they both are returning to camp in 2012)... Dan Bare, 1959-64, tennis staff, visited camp one day in the fall, pointed out the Olympic plaques he had painted back in the day... no truth to the rumor that the teams will be Blue Bed Bugs vs. Red Lice (forget about a psych out, that would be more like a bug out)... the NY Times reporter was nixed before we went to press, so that is why that fizzled; maybe next time... some suggested slogans: "There will be no RECESSION in 2011" and "We'll relive nineteen sixty seven in the summer of twenty eleven" or "Fun you'll be craven in elaven" or in a real stretch (if those weren't enough...), Camp is a heaven in eleven because we like Beethoven"... Wait a sec, that doesn't even make sense! See you in Boca or the Chat room!! Now C'mon, send me some gossip! Oh and don't forget to join our Facebook and Twitter.

DRAMATIC NEWS

Greetings all! I hope everyone has been having a wonderful fall. It's getting much colder here in Virginia, which just makes me miss the warmth of camp even more. But not to worry! Planning is already underway for the Drama Department for the summer of 2011, and I have some exciting news to report.

First, there will be a slight change to the way shows are scheduled starting next year. Instead of having four camper shows, we will be doing three. First up will be "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers", which will be performed by the Club and the Dorm as the kick start to our 2011 season. After that, we'll have the entire Lower Camp coming together to perform "Aladdin". And finally, last but most certainly not least, the remainder of Upper Camp will perform "Bye Bye Birdie!", all before Visiting Day! Then when the parents come to see their children, they'll be treated to highlight performances from all three shows. Of course, we'll try again to stream the shows live online!

After Visiting Day will come one of the coolest new elements of the Drama Department. For the remainder of the summer, lessons will be offered in acting, lighting and sound work, costuming, stage make-up, improvisation, and even stage combat. These lessons will be offered on a rotating basis to all age groups, and will give campers an opportunity to explore their favorite aspects of Drama in much greater detail. Taught by the Drama staff using the full resources of the Field House, these lessons will greatly expand upon the ones that were enjoyed by so many campers in 2010.

Before I go, I want to encourage all campers (and their parents) with an interest in Drama to feel free to contact me throughout the winter and spring at nbradford@yahoo.com. Not only do I enjoy knowing who's going to be most interested in participating come next summer, I'd love to hear any and all theatrical success stories from the campers who made my first summer at Towanda so much fun!

Thank you all, and I can't wait to see you all in next June!

Drama Nick

TRADITIONS

Camp is full of great traditions; one that is definitely fun is the Inters' trip to Cooperstown and the Baseball Hall of Fame. The trip coincides with Mitch playing Abbott & Costello's "Who's On First" to the Inters' Group. Now, that's funny!

FLY ON THE WALL

Parents reflect to us their impressions of choosing Camp Towanda.

Our thanks to Alison Lugassy, mom of campers over the last 9 years, for sharing her thoughts here.

Towanda is a camp that makes each camper happy. When I was looking at camps way back when for my daughter, what I most liked about Towanda was that all the kids looked happy and friendly. They were singing, cheering and having a good time together. This still holds true today for both of my kids; they live and breathe Towanda. It's not just the sports or the activities, it's the values they learned about friendship and literally growing up together; along with the traditions that are so important to them, and to camp. I have two opposite children and they both love Towanda. My daughter had a rough period of adjustment as a first year camper, but became waitress of the year and then counselor of the week! My son just loves camp in general. I made the right decisions by choosing Camp Towanda, way back when.

Alison

TRAVELS

Mitch & Stephanie, Brandon & Jared have been visiting friends to expand the world of Camp Towanda. Recent visits to Atlanta, Maryland, Florida, New England and upstate NY have provided not only the opportunity to tell young families about camp, but to catch up with camp families, staff and alumni. In Atlanta we were with Max & Leo Saltzman, Jodi Eisner (pictured), Erik "Perdue" Berkule and Jamie Levine. In Florida we saw the Frydmans, Horowitzes, Phoebe Dinner, Lucas & Michelle Feigenbaum, the Goldstones. In Syracuse, we went to a basketball game with Stephanie Simon, Jacey Naccarella, Gari Hochman, Stacey Veloric, Sami Wallach and Jamie Manela.

MOMENTS

We want to take a moment to honor and remember three important Towanda Alums that recently passed away. These three epitomize what we mean when we say that everyone leaves a bit of themselves here, no matter how long ago they were at camp.

Sid Rifkind was 95 years young! He was known at camp as Uncle Sid - Head of the Waterfront, Camp Rabbi and whatever and wherever help was needed. From the early 1960s right into the 1980s, Sid was a great part of life at Camp Towanda. Along with his wife, Ruth, and children, Bryna & Roger, the Rifkinds' summer home was Camp Towanda. According to Bryna, Sid was singing camp songs on the way to the doctor.

Howard Seiden, Club 1978, Waiter and CIT! Howie was part of the proud 3 generation Seiden family: Dad, Buddy (Club 1946, Camper Captain for Red Archers), and brothers, Robert & David, and his son, Evan; along with nieces and nephews, Nicole, Brett, Hallie and Matt. Howard remained close to groupmates and friends, as camp was the consistent factor of warmth, camaraderie and love, as it is for so many.

Drama Dani D'Orsi - Caynor. Although only our beloved Drama Director for the summers of 2004 & 2005, Drama Dani continued right through this past summer to hire our drama staff, select the plays, block out the scripts and consult on all aspects of the program from her home. "DD" revitalized our program, expanded participation, created excitement while loving her work with the campers and staff. We will be dedicating the Field House stage in memory of Drama Dani this summer during our Alumni BBQ Sunday July 24.

We will never forget these great Towanda-ers.

VisionWalk

A CURE IS IN SIGHT

Date: May 21, 2011

Place: Central Park, NYC

Central Park Bandshell at W 72nd St

Registration: 8:30 AM

Walk Start: 9:00 AM

More Details in next issue.

The LIT sponsored VISIONWALK in New York City's Central Park is another great opportunity for us all to get together before camp starts... and for a good cause.

As part of our community service program, the LITs sold shirts last summer (can still be ordered) to donate to the Foundation Fighting Blindness. We have experienced that combining a camp reunion and a good cause is very rewarding. Past years' events have helped raise over $400,000.00 towards funding research.

We are proud of all who participate.

We are looking for community service leaders who may be interested in attending the VisionWalk's Kick Off Dinner at Columbus Circle on March 16, 2011.

If you are interested, please contact Mitch right away.
