THE CIRCLE OF CAMP

Liza Goldstone is a 3rd Generation Towanda-er; her parents met at Towanda; Stacy Glass and Jayson (1978-86); and her Grandmother, Dale Sokoloff, attended in the 1950s and 60s and her sister, Ava, attended 6 summers too. Liza just completed her 9th summer at Camp Towanda as a DORM GIRL and eloquently presented this sermon during the summer:

The world is made up of many shapes -- squares, triangles, rectangles. Here at Camp Towanda, circles can be found prominently. A circle symbolizes unity, wholeness, and continuation.

As we step off the busses on the first day of camp, we enter the circular camp "bubble" and environment -- a place that promotes individuality and independence as well as teamwork and friendship. Inside of this camp bubble, we are offered so many incredible opportunities and it is so important to take advantage of all of them.

Both Girl's and Boy's campuses are laid out in a circular shape without corners. Coincidentally, my favorite place on camp, The Grove, is also arranged in a circle. Ever since my first summer, I have loved sitting in The Grove to read and write letters and to also appreciate the sights and sounds of camp. This is also a place where groups come together whether it be before intercamp games or during freeplay.

There is even an "o" in the word "Dorm" that represents the circle of sisterhood and oneness that Dorm girls achieve during their final summer as campers as well as all of the summers leading up to it.

Many aspects and activities at camp have molded me into the person I am today. Through participating in camp plays, I have gained the confidence to truly be myself. Also, because we switch up bunks every summer, our circle changes its order and new friendships are encouraged.

Another one of the many valuable skills I learned at camp is the importance of challenging myself, always remembering that I have the support of my 17 Dorm sisters and 17 Club brothers. At the beginning of the summer, I looked up at the O & A Giant's Ladder and thought "how could anyone get to the top of that?" But, I recently challenged myself and, even though I was very scared, made it up each step alongside one of my Dorm sisters using trust and teamwork. When I eventually stood on the top, I looked down at the sea of smiling faces below me and realized that I can accomplish what I set my mind to with help from my circle of friends and family.

So, I challenge each and every one of you to live each day to its fullest potential and to do things that are a bit out of your comfort zone because it is these things that will make you grow.

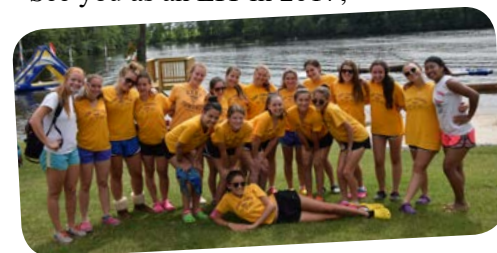

I am so grateful to Mitch and Stephanie for being my summer Mom and Dad and to Amy, Lisa, Bob, and Michael for always being there with endless support and smiles.

I would also like to take a moment to thank my 34 Dorm sisters and Club brothers for celebrating my happiest moments and for sticking by me with unwavering support when I need you most and being the most important part of my circle.

Whether sitting with our age groups at Sunday night barbecues or gathering around a campfire, the unity and oneness created by the circle of the Dorm and Club as well as those of other age groups encourages new memories to be made and bonds to be strengthened. And now I've come full circle -- starting as a shy and quiet Double Deb in 2008 into a confident and excited Dorm girl in 2016.

See you as an LIT in 2017,

Liza

FALL BBQ REVIEW

The Fall BBQ has become the unofficial kick-off of the next summer! In fact, it still felt like summer! Once again, this year's Fall BBQ for New Campers and their families was GREAT! We took full advantage of the new Grill at the Waterfront and had a great lunch by the lake! There was kickball on Skyview, tours of the Treehouses, hanging with the chickens and a great time had by the huge crowd of new campers and their families, along with THE DORM GIRLS of 2017, who did a great job creating a warm welcome for many of our new campers!

The New Camper Fall BBQ was happy, fun, relaxing, comforting and awesome! It was fantastic to see everyone, get to know each other a little better, and feel good that Camp Towanda is now their new summer home!

Thanks to all of our counselors, campers, maintenance crew and alumni that were able to be part of making this a great day! Next step: Welcome of new campers (with nicknames in the next Towanda Times) and then we are off to Group Scoop in January!

Jordan Berke SUPER d!!!

Camp Towanda National Girl, Jordan Berke, has dyslexia and has been part of an AMAZING organization called DYSLEXIAVILLE, spearheaded by Oscar winner Peggy Stern. This organization's mission is to help kids succeed in school and life because of, and not in spite of, their learning differences.

Jordan has been part of a web-based series, through www.dyslexiaville.com, called The Super d! Show. She is a Super d! kid, and is helping to de-stigmatize learning differences, raise awareness, and help other children/parents feel empowered. The episodes are very educational, and really funny!

The website also will take children and parents to learning resources.

October is Dyslexia Awareness month, the website has launched and so far, 2 seasons have been made, but awareness (and funding) is needed to keep this going. You can help spread awareness by:

- Going to YouTube and type in Dyslexiaville
- Subscribe to the channel
- Enjoy all the fun content :) and "like" it!
- SPREAD THE WORD —and ask others to spread the word as well
- For those with Instagram, Facebook or Twitter accounts, if you post about the Super d! Show, include the hashtags #TheSuperDShow #DifferentThinkers

In the meantime....

MIKE THE PLUMBER'S REPORT

Since camp has ended, Mike The Plumber (MTP), our Head Caretaker, and his crew have been very active and busy cleaning up, repairing, fixing and building new stuff at camp. In addition to routine maintenance, leaf raking and winterization, here is a list of some of the projects MTP has been working on so far:

- Additional water well and storage tank for Girls' Camp!!! Oh please, call me shower hour!!
- Remodeled and additional stalls at The White Rock Café bathrooms (maybe, just maybe could cut down on the lines).
- New fences at Main Baseball, Main Tennis courts and around the new softcoat pool deck!
- An all new special dietary kitchen to be more efficient and tastier for our gluten, soy & kosher.
- Many paths now have new layer of shale stone in an effort to smooth out the bumps and roots (path to the garden and main soccer; path to Girls' Camp and the service road to Senior Row).
- More extensive tree and branch trimming...did you see what I saw!
- New porch and expanded deck on The Boys' HC.
- Several bunks with remodeled and enlarged bathrooms.
- Lots of newly seeded grass areas.
- Drama's prop room with new storage shelves and additional stage footlights.
- New and improved PA systems for each campus and the waterfront.
- Refrigeration for the ultimate Sunset Lake BBQ Grill.
- A 2nd Gaga Court under The Big Top!

TOWANDA, THIS IT, OLYMPICS 2016!

It was pure excitement that early August night as the teams were announced. Camp Towanda, split into two, the Blue Jedi Knights and the Red Sith Lords, about to embark on an epic contest of the light vs the dark. Throughout the week we saw great competition and sport as the two teams faced off against each other. The Red Sith came out strong Day 1 claiming Tug-O-War as their own and it was back and forth with the swim and track meets the following days. Yet there was a new hope for Blue when the Jedi prevailed in Ropeburning and Apache. Of course the Sith wouldn't go down without a fight as the Empire struck back by winning sing. But alas it wasn't enough as the force favored the return of the Jedi to claim victory. Divided no more, Sith and Jedi alike came together in a sea of purple as the Dorm Girls awakened the force within us as they sang their Alma Mater.
